THE Troy Chief is greatly disgusted because Governor Martin appealed to the General Government to protect ou outhern border from a threatened Indian raid, instead of calling out our own militis. Doesn't the Chief know that this the duty of the General Govern-ment, not of may one state, to see that the Indians are kept within their res-ervations; and doesn't it know that if our militia was called out to protect our citizens against an Indian raid, the state would have a just claim against the government for the expense incurred? Gov. Martin's appeal was proper, and it was justified by the facts. The attempt of the Chief to ridicule it, and in doing so to casta slur upon the Grand Army and the State

Militia, is contemptible. KANSAS PATENTS.

COLORADO NOTES. IN CAMP, July 12, 1885, Mr. Editor:-We are all alive yet, and are now in camp and have bee for the last two weeks, at Maniton, at the foot of Pike's Peak, and about five miles from the city of Colorado Springs. Colorado Springs is a beautiful city, but only a health and pleasure resort, where the sick come to find health, drink the mineral water, breathe the mountain air, and get well if they can. Some of the rich get well and go home; some settle down and stay here, and some will not go home until Gabriel blows his horn. A great many wealthy people live here and a many wealthy people live here and a great many come here to spend the summer-and spend their money or omebody else's.

Manitou is where the mineral springs are. There are several of them, said to contain iron, sulphur and soda. The water has rather a pleasant taster more like soda or mineral matter than anything else. I cannot see any material difference in any of the springs, although they give them different names. The Iron Spring Co. has built the largest hotel that there is here. I don't know the cost of it, but I think it will run up into the tens of thous ands. They light the town and grounds for a great distance around with electric lights, and everything is beautiful to look at. They have also fenced and fixed up two of the mineral springs and purified them and made them very nice and pleasant.

And now I want to tell you about the meanest man in Colorado. I have seen him myself, and I will tell you what he did; and I think that you will say that I am right. The other day I was at one of the springs that was claimed by the Iron Spring Co. While many people were coming and going and lounging around and drinking the water, one man filled a gallon jug and put it in his wagon to take to his camp for a consumptive wife. A boy came up to him and wanted fifty cents for the water. The man said that h had never been asked to pay for water there before, and that there were thousands of barrels running away every day, and would not pay for it. The boy went away and soon returned in company with what looked like a man, who demanded to know who the party was that refused to pay for water. The man that held the jug of water said he was the man. He ordered his hired man to get up in the wagon and get the jug and pour the water out. The hireling jumped up into the wagon and poured the water out onto the ground, and the great thing was satisfied; although there are tons of the water running to waste every hour. I will close by saying that there are plenty of good men and plenty of good mineral water and plenty of good ho tels without bothering the Iron Spring Company or their hotels or their so called springs or their so-called man that attends to their business here.

Our company is enjoying good health. Mr. C. C. Eastwood and lady will remain in Colorado Springs for a while, while your humble correspondent and the kid, Mr. Charles Kline will take to the mountains for a few weeks. Having said more than you will probably publish, I stop for this J. M. EASTWOOD.

Mr. Wm. Thomas, of Newton, Iowa, says: "My wife has been seriously afficted with a cough for twenty-five years, and this spring more severely than ever before. She had used many remedies without relief, and being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery, did so, with most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved her very much, and the second bottle has absolutely cured her. She has not had as good health for thirty years." Trial bottles free at Goodhue & Evans' drug store. NOT A SINGLE GRAY HAIR.

The drop in the price of quinine may have been caused by the large shipments of Collins' Ague Cure into the malarial and chills and fever districts throughout the south and west, where formerly it was supposed nothing but quinine would cure. Judging from the large shipments daily of this remedy from the laboratory of the Collins Bros. Drug Co., Second and Vine streets, it looks as if Collins' Ague Cure was taking the place of all other remedies for chills.—From Missouri Republican, Aug. 18, 1884.
